Dear Lesley,

Human Transplantation (Wales) Bill – additional information

On behalf of Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee, I thank you and your officials for attending our meeting on 4 February 2013.

The Committee is grateful to you for your evidence and for responding to the questions.

As agreed, I would be grateful if you could clarify further the following points:

- further information about the type of person that is likely to be exempted from being an appointed representatives by regulations under section 7;
- further details on section 8 (activities involving materials for (living) adults who lack capacity to consent) and in particular, the likely timing of the regulations to be introduced by this section;
- clarification on the procedure to be used for issuing codes or practice under section 14 of the Bill.
