Dear Sister,

Yesterday, on Remembrance Sunday, we devoted attention in our services to the 'kind invitation' that was extended to readers of Y Tyst by Robin Gwyndaf, Vice President of the Fellowship of Reconciliation in Wales, to support the establishment of a WALES PEACE INSTITUTE to promote justice and human rights, freedom and peace.

An opportunity arose to share copies of this 'kind invitation' in three Welsh churches. I am confident that members of those churches will capitalise on the opportunity to display their trenchant support, as do I in writing this note.

I would be grateful if you could pass my message on to the Petitions Committee.

Best regards,
Ieuan Davies
(Former Minister of the Tabernacle and Bethania, Morriston)
