Inquiry into recycling in Wales
Response from: Goule Robert

I live in the vale of glamorgan where they have co-mingled waste recycling, as far as i am concerned it is one of the few things they have got right !!!!!. If you (the welsh assembly) wish to bring in segregated recycling then you have lost one avid recycler, i do not intend to have multiple containers in my little kitchen (there would be no room to move) I will not keep them out the back as that would involve carrying wet, insect infested rubbish through my terraced house. though I suppose i could keep it on the street. please rethink this stupid proposal.
